

WHAT IS AMIGDALA?

AMIGDALA is a Horizon Europe project which seeks to facilitate decision-makers in governments and industry to define and evaluate pathways and market uptakes of transformative solutions for circular, climate neutral and competitive industries.

AMIGDALA

Modelling industries towards the Green Deal

OBJECTIVES

- Developing an integrated modelling approach for the EU's energy intensive sectors.
- Addressing the lack of standardisation in model integration.
- Providing consistent and validated data to support climate objectives.
- Enhancing transparency and understanding between model results and decision-makers' needs.
- Driving informed decisions towards a sustainable and carbon-neutral future.
